

COUNT

The COUNT directive specifies the number of licenses that can be issued simultaneously for the particular feature floating on the network. The count may be up to 2147483647 (the 32-bit integer limit) or may be set to UNLIMITED.

If the COUNT directive is omitted, the license is considered to be for local usage. If the COUNT directive is specified, the feature must be hosted on a license server.