

Supported HTTP methods

The HTTP specification defines several standard methods which are used to operate on a resource. The most commonly used operations are listed in the table below.

HTTP Method	Description
GET	Finds and returns the specified resource.
PUT	Creates a resource.
DELETE	Deletes an existing resource.
HEAD	Requests using HEAD only return data included in headers for the specified resource.

Also see Supported HTTP headers for information about request headers supported by LAC.