

Selecting features to include in the template

The Features tab in the Templates dialog lets you select the features that should be included in the license by default. Select the checkbox next to any features you want to include in the template. The Settings tab lets you define the features further for use in the template.