Soap_Response

The Soap_Response object is used for a general response.

Soap_Response contains the following properties:

Property name	Type	Description
result_code	integer	Soap response status code, as described in SOAP API return codes.
result_string	string	Additional information or text sent in response.