

LICENSEE

The LICENSEE directive indicates the user or company to whom the license was issued. When this field is used, the entry is enclosed in quotation marks. You should use printable characters and not use quotes (") within the string.