OPTIONS

The OPTIONS directive stores additional licensing options for the license. With this directive, you can use entries enclosed in quotation marks. You should use printable characters within the string. The information is validated in the key (see KEY), so it is protected from tampering.

Note: This directive is the same as the COMMENT directive.