About X-Formation

What products does X-Formation provide?

X-Formation offers the following end-to-end solutions that meet all your license management needs, from licensing your products, to distributing software licenses to your end users, to enabling end users to monitor and optimize their license usage:

- · LM-X License Manager, a full-featured, yet easy-to-use solution for software licensing that protects your software against piracy.
- License Activation Center, an advanced license fulfillment and activation system that helps you manage the process of deploying your licenses and managing your product orders.
- License Statistics, a license tracking solution that delivers unprecedented efficiency in monitoring license usage, saving you hundreds, or even thousands of dollars.

At X-Formation we also build software that increases business productivity by automating tasks between different online applications.

Connect is a SaaS solution that allows you to build integrations between web apps you use every day in order to automatically extract data from one source application (like Salesforce, JIRA or Twitter) and simultaneously push it even to multiple destinations (such as HipChat or Slack).

Email communications for X-Formation resellers

If you are a reseller of X-Formation software products, we request that you assign one person in your company as a contact for all X-Formation reseller activities if possible. This helps to ensure consistent, efficient communication and reduce the administrative overhead of maintaining our reseller agreement

If assigning a single point of contact is not possible, please understand that all contacts will receive all reseller-related emails from us. If you don't want to receive these emails, you can request to be taken off of our mailing list. If you take yourself off our mailing list, you will no longer receive any communications from us regarding reseller activities.
